

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Joe B. Wiles with the Public Affairs Office...

The best of the best were recognized February 11th at the Annual Awards banquet held at the Vance Club.

The keynote speaker at the banquet was retired Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force Frederick Finch, the thirteenth enlisted person to hold that office.

The annual awards recognized categories ranging from Airman of the Year to the Key Spouse of the Year.

The support contractor, PAE Technical Services, also presented trophies to their top performers during the banquet.

Louise and Roy WYDE-ner retired Friday after working for the Vance support contractor for a combined total of 65 years.

Louise started working at Vance in 1974. Roy decided to join the team in 1991.

Louise and Roy have been married for 48 years, and according to Louise, the secret to their long relationship, is both of them work full-time jobs.

Congratulations Louise and Roy... and Godspeed.

And that's your Vance Minute... have a great Air Force day.
